Topic 2:

GOTV Logistics

What Your Community Voters Need to Know About Voting....

How the Registrar of Voters is ensuring that everyone can vote and be assured that their vote is counted:

A ballot will be mailed to every California registered voter.

1. 10/5/20 - mailing of ballots begins. Ballot contains voting information. Do not forget to sign and date your ballot envelope.
2. 10/6/20 - 11/3/20 - voting period. You can complete your ballot at home and drop off or mail - no stamp needed.

You can track your ballot here: <https://california.ballottrax.net/voter/>

Prefer to Vote Early?

Vote at a Vote Center

- 15 Voter's Choice Act counties allow early voting:
 - 3 days from 10/31-11/2 and election day on 11/3
 - Vote by mail ballots show locations for Vote Center

Vote at a polling place

- In 43 counties you can find early voting sites at <https://www.sos.ca.gov/elections/polling-place/>

Remember all California eligible voters can register to vote or update their voter registration and vote on the same day at a Voters Center or polling place.

Voting in Person?

Registered already? No identification is required at polling location.

If there is no DMV#, SS#, or CA ID# on your registration, you may be asked for identification:

1. Recent utility bill
2. Driver's license
3. Passport
4. Student ID with photo and your name
5. Government agency document
6. Sample ballot sent to your home

Tips from the Secretary of State regarding Vote Centers and Polling Places

You must vote at Vote Center or polling place if you:

- Forgot to register
- Moved after 10/19

Wear a mask. Forgot? Masks are available.

Go early to avoid crowds. Sites open at 7 am.

Essential workers can request two hours to vote at beginning or end of shift without losing pay. Tell your employer.

Outreach: Remind Voters to Vote...

- Submit a PSA for cable TV public access.
- Host an online Zoom party as a phone bank for GOTV.
- Host a virtual party to write GOTV postcards.
- Engage young voters through Rock the Vote <https://www.rockthevote.org/>
- Engage students through Students Demand Action <https://studentsdemandaction.org/>
- Obtain public domain promotional materials from Democracy at Work to post on social media or in offices, stores etc.

Topic 3:

Voter Education

Why Voters Need Your Help

- If voters know more about the election, they will turn out to vote.
- If voters know more about the candidates, they will choose leaders who reflect their concerns and views.
- If voters understand the issues – what they are voting for or against – they will feel more confident and have more interest in voting.
- Voters can discover that voting affects their daily lives.
- Even with the virus, we can take action to help voters get the information they need to feel good about voting.

ACTION: Candidate Forums

- Times have changed! In person or virtual?
- Congressional, state and local offices. For Congress and statewide offices, the top-two format will limit the number of candidates. Local offices may have several candidates.
- Assess your branch capability – you may not be able to do all races. Determine how many forums you want to hold and for which offices.
- Can you partner with another local group, e.g. League of Women Voters? You could choose a race that another group is not covering.

ACTION: Candidate Forums

- Set date(s) and venue(s).
- Virtual* – some options:
 - ZOOM basic - free; a small fee gives more time
 - ZOOM Webinar - fee; more attendees, time and format options
 - GoToWebinar – more sophisticated and more expensive
 - GotoMeeting – free, audio only
 - FreeConferenceCall – audio and video conferencing; lower fees
 - Record a forum in the studio of your local cable station.
- It would help to find a branch member with tech skills.
- Just as with a live forum, be sure no campaign materials are visible in the background for each candidate.

* Online tutorials are available on the AAUW website: <https://www.aauw-ca.org/category/tech-tools/>

ACTION: Meet the Candidates

- Marketplace concept: each candidate has a station and voters circulate asking questions
- Virtual Meet & Greet:
 - several candidates can be on one meeting
 - each gives a statement
 - voters submit questions through Q&A.

AAUW Rules for Engaging Candidates

Avoid giving the appearance of favoring one candidate over others.

- Branches may hold forums to which all candidates have been invited. If many candidates are running, they may limit the forum to candidates from two major parties.
- 501(c)(4) branches may proceed with only one candidate if a good faith effort to invite others has been made and is well-documented.
- 501(c)(3) branches may not proceed with only one candidate despite a good faith effort to invite both. There must be two or more for each separate race.

ACTION: Candidate Questionnaire

- Old school technique
- Branch gives candidates one or two questions – the same questions for each candidate in a given race. All candidates must have a chance to respond.
- Candidates provide written replies – set a word limit. You must print each reply in full unless you have established a way to cut.
- Branch prints up the replies and distributes: website, emails, mailed documents.
- Several races can be addressed in one document.

ACTION: Issue Meeting

Again, live or virtual? It depends on where your branch is located.

Educational meeting on a local issue or on an AAUW priority.

- Guest presenters – individual or panel
- Time for audience comments & questions

Advocacy meeting, promoting a position on an issue.

- Same format as for educational meeting.
- Specify advocacy in publicity.
- Be prepared for opposite position to be voiced.

You may invite an incumbent or candidate for office to speak on an issue on which he/she has expertise as long as the official or candidate does not discuss his/her candidacy.

ACTION: Ballot Measures

AAUW will take positions on ballot measures that relate to our mission. Members need to know these positions.

- Host a branch discussion on all the propositions – branch members can present the measures.
- Invite a member of LWV to speak to your group on the pros and cons of the measures.
- Invite your members to attend a community presentation by LWV.
- Have branch members write letters to the editor citing AAUW's positions on the measures.

All meetings can be live or virtual.

ACTION: Issue Guides

- Select a few issues important to your branch/AAUW.
- Determine two or more candidates' positions on these issues (depending on the race).
- Your research to select candidates must use information in the public domain:
 - Statements or speeches by the candidates
 - Voting records
 - Direct quotes published by the media – not media commentary
 - Information on candidates' websites or in campaign pieces
 - Call the candidate's office and ask
- Create a document that lists the issues and gives the candidates' positions as “pro” or “con” on each issue. AAUW has a template for issue guides on the national website.
- Distribute the document – mail, email, website
- These are tricky! You must be sure you are correct about positions.

AAUW Rules on Candidate Endorsements and Campaign Work

Nonpartisan elective office

- A branch with 501(c)(4) status may endorse/oppose candidates for nonpartisan elective offices.
- A branch that has its own 501(c)(3) status may not endorse/oppose candidates for nonpartisan elective offices.

Partisan elective office

- A branch may not endorse/oppose candidates for partisan elective office.

Branch may not contribute money, mailing lists, or anything of material value to candidates for any elective office, partisan or non-partisan

Branch members may not volunteer for a candidate for elective office in branch or AAUW capacity.

Campaign Rules, continued

Branches may not publish political announcements in branch newsletters.

A branch may endorse or oppose nominees for appointed offices.

An AAUW member who is a candidate for elective office may state their AAUW membership, as long as

1. They are not taking any positions that are contrary to official AAUW position on any issue.
2. Do not state or otherwise imply that they have been endorsed by AAUW, AAUW California, or their own AAUW branch.

Election Information

- Give your voters additional information resources – such as:
 - CA Secretary of State’s website
 - County Registrar’s website
 - Votersedge.org/ca (LWV site)
 - Ballotpedia.org
- Branch website could have an election info section

REMINDER: In all election activities, it’s important to maintain AAUW’s nonpartisan policy. We do not support or oppose any candidate for office or any political party.
