

Hi!
I'm new.
Just like everything else these days.

Dear <<First Name>>,

Welcome to the California Connection, a new monthly e-blast from your state organization. The familiar magazine-type publication California Perspective will be quarantined (ha, ha!) for a while. We promise to keep the California Connection short, timely, and geared toward our members (that's YOU) with what YOU might want to know or do to be an active AAUWer.

Things to know

Just a reminder: AAUW does not sanction in-person meetings at this time nor for the foreseeable future. This guidance is in the best interest of all our members. Let's remain safe today and enjoy gatherings in the future!

Things are busy at AAUW National and your questions may not always be answered as quickly as you'd like. Send your questions to the newly-launched resource, "Ask Us First," at AskUsFirst@aauw-ca.org. You may be able to get help right away! .

A victory for equal pay! AAUW Legal Advocacy Fund plaintiff Aileen Rizo's eight-year legal battle ended in July when the U.S. Supreme Court let a lower court decision— that employers cannot use salary history as a reason for paying men more than women—stand. AAUW stood by her and applauds that decision. Read these strong words.

Things to do

Attend our webinars! Our Leadership Team is developing online workshops on timely topics that support the mission. Look at the list and register to attend.
