

Market Faire

Fri, Sept 25th -
Sun, Sept 27th

Why:

An opportunity to support AAUW scholarships for women/girls by shopping locally from the comfort of your home. This virtual auction features unique pieces of arts & crafts from members and young girls, a treasure or two for every kind of shopper.

What:

Samples of the arts and crafts are pictured here, over 60 items including:

- Handcrafted pine-needle baskets, gourds, pottery, wall hangings
- One-of-a-kind jewelry, scarves, holiday & everyday table linens, aprons
- Original artwork – paintings, sketches, mixed media, ceramics
- Even a half cord of wood ... and much, much more!

When:

Live Auction Bids on Facebook:

4pm Friday, September 25 through 8pm Sunday, September 27

Requests for Proxy Bidders (see below): Due by September 11

How:

Look for an invitation to this event on Facebook starting September 5, 2020, or simply follow the instructions as detailed in the auction catalog.

If you do not have a Facebook account, that's okay, you can request a proxy to do your bidding. Email Jo Ann Schilling (joannschilling@gmail.com), and she will assign a proxy to bid what you are willing to pay for each requested item. We will make it happen.

Complete instructions for both direct bidding online or bidding through a proxy are available in the auction brochure at our website : <https://nevadacounty-ca.aauw.net/> and forthcoming Branch member email communications.

The American Association of University Women (AAUW) focuses on removing the barriers and biases that stand in the way of gender equity. Your purchases at the Online Market Faire help fund scholarships for local girls and women as well as national fellowships and grants.
