Things to know

"You're in AAUW? Never heard of it. Oh wait, aren't you the people who have that great rummage sale?" If that's all your community knows about AAUW, take heart. The state has hired a professional marketing firm to help strategically shape and communicate our brand to better promote AAUW. The co-owner is a former AAUW branch president, so they "get us." Our promise: No fake news!

"Nay" for AAUW-supported legislation. The AAUW Action Fund even scored them! Who got 100% for supporting AAUW priorities? Who got 7%? Who got ZERO? Find out with the AAUW Action Fund Congressional Voting Record (CVR).

Do people think you're still wearing your Halloween mask when they see you on Zoom? You might want to get a few tips on lighting, makeup, background, etc. for the many AAUW meetings you attend.

You can look great even though you're still wearing your kitty-cat flannel pajama bottoms. Here are a couple of sample YouTube videos.

Admit it. You've always dreamed of handing out an award in a slinky sequined gown with earrings the size of hubcaps. It can happen and you can stick your big toe in the waters of state leadership at the same time. Join the state's new short-term task force established to create procedures for recognizing and awarding stellar branch projects and programs. If you'd like to hash out award criteria and help branches be considered for recognition, contact Sandi Gabe, task force chair, by November 15th at sandi.gabe@hotmail.com.
