Introduction

The AAUW California Policies and Procedures govern the day-to-day operations and administration of the state organization. This includes branch activities associated with statewide activities and projects. The policies define decisions made by the AAUW California governing body over time. The procedures describe the steps to be taken to carry out the policies.

The AAUW California Policies and Procedures are to be used in conjunction with the AAUW California Bylaws, the primary governing document of the corporation. At no time can the policies and procedures be in conflict with the national AAUW Bylaws or public policy program, or the AAUW California bylaws or public policy priorities.

The policies and procedures are reviewed regularly and updated as needed to reflect current operations and business practices of the corporation. The date on the cover of the document reflects the most recent full review and revision date. Archived versions of this document with a history of approved amendments and dates are housed on the AAUW California Google Drive.

These policies and procedures may be amended, suspended (for a specific purpose and time frame), or rescinded by a majority vote of the board of directors.

The format used for these policies and procedures is “information mapping” which allows for easy reference and readability. Each policy section is sub-numbered for easy reference. These policies and procedures are exclusively for the use of AAUW California.

Policy 403 - Office and Office Manager

403.1 Office - An Overview	AAUW California maintains an office in Sacramento. The state business of the board of directors and committee chairs is centralized, as appropriate, through the state office. The AAUW California president oversees the office. The Executive Committee of the board of directors serves as the personnel committee.
403.1.1 Responsibility of Executive Oversight	The Executive Committee, i.e., the state president and the chief financial officer, through their oversight, do the following: Review all documents for signing or renewal pertaining to office operations, e.g., leases, agreements, contracts. Ensure best business practices are in place for the administration of the office and its related functions, facilities, and equipment.
403.1.2 Responsibility of the State President	The state president has overall responsibility for and must sign leases, agreements, contracts and all legal documents pertaining to the corporation.
403.2 Office Manager – The Role	The office manager's role is to support AAUW California's mission and vision through the delivery of services to state officers, state committees, branches, and members. The office manager is an at-will employee of the corporation and may not accept outside employment without the express approval of the board. The office manager performs day-to-day administrative functions under the supervision of the state president and/or a designated member of the Executive Committee.

403.2.1 Responsibilities of the Office Manager	The office manager provides general information to members, prospective members and the public. <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Produces and distributes regularly scheduled communications and mailings of the state that the state Communications Committee does not handle.● Provides bookkeeping functions that support the financial operations of the state.● Maintains all state files that must be retained for both legal and historical purposes. Policy 404 – Equipment

404.1 AAUW California Assets – Responsibility	The office manager, in consultation with the president and chief financial officer, tracks and maintains the list of owned/leased equipment that AAUW California possesses. The equipment is for the performance of AAUW California business.
404.2 Loaning Equipment – Procedure	The AAUW California board members may borrow equipment from the AAUW California office during their term. Board members need to follow these steps when borrowing AAUW California equipment: Step/Action <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Obtain a letter of agreement from the AAUW California office.2. Review the terms of the loan, including responsibility for maintenance and protection of the equipment from damage or loss.3. Fill out and sign the letter of agreement to borrow AAUW California equipment.4. Send the physical letter or email a copy to the AAUW California office and retain a copy in the board member's files.5. Notify the AAUW California office manager of the date for equipment pickup.

Policy 405 – Interbranch Councils (IBCs)

405.1 Purpose	The purpose of Interbranch Council (IBC) Is to facilitate regular collaboration among branches in geographic areas where two or more branches exist. All actions of the IBC must be in accordance with the AAUW and AAUW California mission, purpose and Use of Name policy. However, an IBC is not recognized as an affiliate of national AAUW.
405.1.1 Why IBCs Exist	IBCs exist to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Foster communication among branches. ● Encourage multi-branch activities. ● Alert branches to act on intercity or inter-county issues. ● Establish local positions that are consistent with AAUW’s positions on issues affecting the interbranch area. ● Engage in activities that enhance and promote AAUW California membership and programs.
405.2 Organization and Structure – Composition	The following compose the members of the IBC: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● IBC officers ● Branch presidents or designated branch members ● Branch public policy chair. ● State and AAUW team members ● All interested branch members
405.2.1 IBC Dues	Each IBC determines its dues based on anticipated income (if any) from other sources and expected expenses, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Mailings ● Printing of minutes ● Membership in coalition organizations ● Publicity ● Meeting space costs Since an IBC is not an affiliate of AAUW, we recommend that dues and other IBC funds be maintained with one of its member branches rather than in a separate IBC bank account. IBCs can also choose to divest themselves of all funds and share expenses for events among branches as the need arises.

405.2.2 Officers	Each IBC has officers or a governing committee responsible for carrying out the duties of the council.
405.2.3 IBC Governing Documents	Each IBC has its own governing documents that include, at a minimum, a policy sheet or set of standing rules. IBC's do not have bylaws as they are not recognized as an affiliate entity by National. Only affiliate entities have bylaws. The AAUW Governance Committee and parliamentarian are available for consultation to IBCs regarding governing documents.
405.2.4 IBC Meeting Schedule	Each IBC establishes a meeting schedule that includes a minimum number of meetings per year. It has the option to call special meetings, determine locations that serve membership for maximum representation and establish who should be responsible for hosting the meetings.
405.2.5 IBC Bank Accounts	Since an IBC is not an affiliate of national AAUW, it does not have tax exempt status through AAUW. Having its own bank account creates a requirement for the IBC to obtain its own tax exempt status and file annual tax reports with the IRS, California Franchise Tax Board (FTB) and California Attorney General's Office. Hence, we do not recommend that IBCs have their own bank accounts. Maintaining IBC funds in one of its member branches would be a better option. IBCs can also choose to divest themselves of all funds and share expenses for events among branches as the need arises. Note that if an IBC maintains funds in one of its branches, it should create some policies to ensure oversight of these funds.
405.2.6 IBC Fundraising	Since an IBC is not an affiliate of national AAUW, it is not permitted to raise funds as an AAUW entity (see national AAUW Fundraising Policy 501). Any fundraising should be done through one of its branches.

Policy 406 - Scheduling of AAUW Events

406.1 Schedule Guideline	To establish a climate of inclusivity, AAUW California should, whenever possible, avoid scheduling state events on secular and religious holidays of significance and known observance by members of various groups.

407.2 Summary of Guidelines	A 501c(3) branch is not allowed to endorse any candidate, whether partisan or nonpartisan. A 501c(4) may endorse a candidate in a nonpartisan contest, provided it has reviewed state and local election law to learn if such an endorsement is considered a contribution and disallowed. A nonpartisan elective office is an office for which party affiliation does not appear on the ballot next to the candidate's name. A nonpartisan endorsement must be a duly approved action by a properly noticed meeting of the board. It must be represented as an endorsement by the branch board of directors only, not AAUW in its entirety. Branches must avoid any actions which might appear to be providing a mailing list to the candidate. Members are free to personally support a candidate of their choosing, but not in the name of AAUW.
